Assalaamu-alaykum and Ramadhan Mubarak!

Dear brothers and sisters,

We hope you are safe and well by the Grace of the Almighty. When we first published our Ramadhan guide back in 2009, Eid was celebrated at the start of Autumn. Now, Ramadhan is getting underway with the start of Spring. It is amazing to think that the Blessed Month has shifted nearly half a year since that first issue, and we are so grateful to be able to bring this book to you after all this time. Thank you for coming along with us on the journey!

Spring is the season of rebirth and renewal. As we emerge from the dark of winter into longer light-filled days, we feel refreshed and full of hope. In much the same way, Ramadhan feels like springtime for our souls – especially for anyone who feels like they have been wandering along in spiritual darkness for a while. The Holy Month's arrival brings a most-welcome light back into our lives.

We love this time of year for many reasons, one of which is that it means we can play our part, through this book, in helping you to make the most of your Ramadhan. We hope that the Ramadhan Refreshers, prayer timetables, and information included within these pages on shops and services that are ready to help you with all your needs are useful to you this month and beyond.

Of course, that isn't all we have to offer you. We have some fantastic prizes to give away this year, including two tickets to Dubai and a Samsung Galaxy tablet. See inside for details.

As always, we are grateful to our partners, sponsors, and advertisers for making these guides possible. Please let them know you saw them here when you use their services. And please get in touch via social media to say salaam – we really love hearing from you.

With du'aa for a safe, healthy, and blessed Ramadhan and Eid.

Ramadhan Reminder:

Fasting

Fasting in Islam is the act of abstaining from eating, drinking, and intimate relations from the break of dawn until the setting of the sun. 'Sawm', the Arabic word for fasting, literally means 'to refrain'.

The Qur'an says that fasting is prescribed for Muslims "as it was prescribed to those before you, that you may learn self-restraint" (2:183). It also says fasting is a means of attaining taqwa, which is God-consciousness.

Every healthy Muslim over the age of puberty must fast in Ramadhan. Those with a mental or physical illness and children are not expected to fast. Some groups are permitted to postpone fasting. These are people on a journey, women who are pregnant, breastfeeding, or menstruating, and people with a temporary illness. They can make up for missed fasts at a later date. People that cannot fast at all due to long-term conditions can feed a poor person instead.

The fast begins with Suhur, a meal before dawn ('subha-sadiq') and a statement of intention to keep the fast. The fast ends with Iftar at Maghreb time, the moment the sun begins to set, with a prayer the fast is accepted. It is traditional to end the fast with dates and water.

Intentionally eating, drinking, or engaging in intimate relations during the fast will break it. A broken fast will have to be made up for with additional fasting or charity. Bad conduct during a fast will reduce its rewards.

Ramadhan Reminder:

Prayer

Prayer, both in the form salaah and du'aa, is an act of worship that takes place all year round, but in Ramadhan, it takes on an extra level of importance as the rewards are multiplied. Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him, (pbuh) said: "Whosoever fasts during the month of Ramadhan with faith and hope of reward, all his past sins will be forgiven; and whosoever stands up in prayer in Ramadhan with faith and hope of reward, all his past sins will be forgiven; and whosoever stands up in worship during the Night of Power (Laylat-ul-Qadr) with faith and a hope of reward, all his sins will be forgiven."

As well as the daily fardh (compulsory) prayers, there is a greater emphasis on performing sunnah prayers (the additional prayers practiced by the Prophet pbuh) such as Tahajjud (pre-dawn prayer) in this month. Ramadhan also includes the Taraawi, the special nightly salaah within which the Qur'an is recited in its entirety over the course of the month, and Laylat-ul-Qadr, the night on which the Qur'an was first revealed. It is highly recommended to spend the whole Laylat-ul-Qadr in prayer.

Du'aa – personal supplication – is another means of drawing close to The Almighty, and engaging in extensive du'aa during Ramadhan is highly recommended. As it says in the Qur'an: "And when My servants ask you concerning Me, indeed I am near. I respond to the invocation of the supplicant when he calls upon Me" (2:186).

Ramadhan Reminder:

Charity

Like prayer, charity is an act of worship that takes place all year round, but it takes on extra significance in Ramadhan due to the empathy that the act of fasting generates for those that have to go without food and drink every day, and because of the increased rewards on offer.

Charity can be exercised in different forms, from the most straightforward act of donating money to people in need, to giving one's time and efforts to help others, to simple acts of kindness such as smiling. The Messenger (pbuh) said: "Every good deed is charity, and it is a good deed that you meet your brother with a cheerful countenance and that you pour water from your bucket into the vessel of your brother."

The compulsory act of charity, Zakaat, is one of the five pillars of Islam. Zakaat is where, on an annual basis, adult Muslims donate 2.5% of their wealth (over a certain amount) to help those in need. Zakaat can only be used for specific purposes, and the beneficiaries of Zakaat are set out in the Qur'an (e.g. chapter 2, verse 177).

In addition, voluntary donations in the form of Sadaqaah and Lillah, which can be spent on a wider range of causes, are highly encouraged during the month as charity cleanses one's wealth and helps to protect one from harm and sin. As the Qur'an says, "Those who spend (in the cause of The Almighty) privately or publicly, by night and day, have their reward with their Lord. And (on Judgement Day) they shall neither fear nor grieve." (2:274).

ASSOCIATION OF MUSLIM POLICE

Ramadan Mubarak

Leicestershire Police and the Association of Muslim Police wish you and your family a blessed Ramadan.

The Association of Muslim Police was set up in 2009 by Leicestershire Police. It is in place to provide a support network to officers and staff, engage with communities and promote understanding of Islam within the organisation.

We are recruiting for several roles, to find out more visit:

<https://www.leics.police.uk/JoinUs>
or email recruitmentteam@leics.police.uk

May the blessings of the month of Ramadan be upon each of us. Ameen.

Ramadhan Reminder:

Qur'an

As the month in which Qur'an was first revealed to the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh), Ramadhan is the perfect time to develop or deepen our relationship with the Holy Book. The closer we are to the Qur'an, the closer it brings us to our Lord, and to our Prophet (pbuh) whose life exemplified it.

It is a common practice to complete a khatam – that is, read the whole Qur'an – at least once in this month. If you don't already do it, try to make Qur'an recitation a part of your daily routine. Every single letter of the Qur'an that we read comes with a reward.

The Qur'an is meant to be read by mankind, as stated in the very first revelation. "Read! In the name of your Lord...." The Qur'an was written in Arabic but it was intended as a message for all, across borders and languages, and throughout time. If you don't know Arabic, seek out a translation in your language.

The Qur'an is rich and deep, but also straightforward and simple in its core message. If you have tried reading the meaning of the Qur'an before but found it difficult to understand, try starting with the smaller surah (chapters) towards the end of the Qur'an. Or seek out a tafseer class, which is a gathering in which you study the meaning of the Qur'an. The Holy Book has many layers and communicates with people on many different levels. Have faith that your Lord has included a way which it will speak to you.

Ramadhan Reminder:

Reset

Ramadhan is a time for reordering our priorities and refocusing on our worship. Many people start the month with good intentions for spiritual development. Some achieve their goals but others, for various reasons, don't. Having a plan can help, so try following these steps to keep you on track this Ramadhan.

- (1) Establish your starting point. Where are you today with your practice? How often do you pray? Do you fulfil your charitable obligations? Do any bad habits need to go?
- (2) Decide on your goal. Which area of your practice do you want to improve? In what way? Be specific. Focus on one or two things. You might well need a complete overhaul, but it could be a struggle to change everything in one go. Don't set yourself up to fail.
- (3) Work out the steps that will help you reach your goal. Not all of them – just the next one or two. Make them realistic and achievable so that you feel encouraged to keep going. Remember that even if your steps feel small, for every step you take towards God He takes ten steps towards you.
- (4) Put your plan into action! And when you reach your chosen goal, repeat the above process and work on the next one. God Willing, you will get yourself back on track and finish Ramadhan closer to Him than you were when the month began.

Ramadhan Reminder: Celebrate

At the end of Ramadhan comes the festival of Eid-ul-Fitr, but for many people the holy month itself feels like a joyous celebration. There is joy in the start and end of each fast, and in any hardship endured because of its anticipated rewards. There is joy in swapping recipes and sharing food with family, neighbours, and friends. There is joy in parting with one's wealth for charity, knowing that it gives the less fortunate some joy in their lives too. And there is the joy of being part of a worldwide community all engaged in one act of devotion, for one month, for The One.

Then Eid arrives and the joy continues. Eid is celebrated differently by the many different communities that make up the Muslim ummah, but there are some Eid practices that all Muslims have in common.

Across the Muslim world the day will start with the Eid salaah, a special two-part prayer and sermon. The charitable acts that abound in Ramadhan will continue on Eid day with the sadaqaat-ul-fitr, a payment made to charity by all who can afford it. And the day will be spent visiting family and friends, sharing meals and Ramadhan memories, and indulging one another - especially children - with gifts.

Eid is also a reflective time and many people will take this time to visit the cemetery and pay respects to those who have passed away.

However you spend your Eid, may it be a truly blessed day.

Chicken Dynamite

Ingredients

For the Chicken:	For the Batter:	For the Dynamite Sauce:
500g Chicken	80g Cornflour	6 Tbsp Mayonnaise
1 Tsp Salt	80g Plain Flour	2 Tbsp Sriracha Sauce
1 Tsp Garlic Powder	1/2 Tsp Salt	2 Tbsp Ketchup
1 Tsp Paprika Powder	1/2 Tsp Pepper	1 Tbsp Honey
1 Tsp Soy Sauce	2 Eggs	1 Tsp Lemon Juice
		1 Tsp Paprika

Method

1. Dice up the chicken into small pieces
2. Add the salt, garlic powder, paprika powder and soy sauce to the chicken and leave to marinate in the fridge for 30 minutes
3. Mix the cornflour, plain flour, salt and pepper in a bowl to create the batter
4. Whisk 2 eggs inside a separate bowl
5. Dip the chicken into the batter, then into the eggs and a final dip into the batter and then place onto a plate ready to fry
6. Mix the mayonnaise, sriracha sauce, ketchup, honey, lemon juice and paprika powder inside a bowl to create the dynamite sauce
7. Fry the chicken in oil at medium heat until golden brown in colour
8. Remove chicken from oil and place onto a plate lined with kitchen paper to get rid of any excess oil
9. Pour the dynamite sauce over the chicken and mix thoroughly
10. Serve and enjoy!

Frozen Mint Leonade

Ingredients

1 Cup Water	1 Cup Fresh Mint Leaves
2 thirds Cup Lemon Juice	4 Tbsp White Sugar
2 Cups Ice Cubes	1 Tbsp Brown Sugar
	Pinch of Salt

Method

1. Pour the water, lemon juice (preferably from freshly squeezed lemons), ice cubes, fresh mint leaves, white sugar, brown sugar and a tiny pinch of salt into a blender, and blend until the ice has broken down into a slush
2. You can taste a spoonful of the mixture at this stage to decide if you want to increase any of the ingredients. If it's too sour for you, you can increase the amount of water. Or if you have a super sweet tooth then you can add in some more sugar (although at 5 Tbsp's of sugar, it'll already be very sweet!)
3. Pour into 3 small glasses and decorate with some fresh mint.

Honey Garlic Chicken Breast

Serves 6
60 minutes

Ingredients

For the Chicken:

500g / 1 lb chicken breast	2 garlic cloves
Salt and pepper	1 1/2 tbsp apple cider vinegar
1/4 cup flour	1 tbsp soy sauce
3 1/2 tbsp (50g) unsalted butter	1/3 cup honey

Method

1. Cut the breasts in half horizontally to create 4 steaks in total. Sprinkle each side with salt and pepper.
2. Place flour in a shallow dish. Coat chicken in flour and shake off excess.
3. Melt most of the butter in a large skillet over high heat – hold back about 1 tsp for later.
4. Place chicken in skillet and cook for 2 – 3 minutes until golden. Turn and cook the other side for 1 minute.
5. Turn heat down slightly to medium high.
6. Make a bit of room in the pan and add garlic and top with remaining dab of butter. Stir garlic briefly once butter melts.
7. Add vinegar, soy sauce and honey. Stir / shake pan to combine. Bring sauce to simmer, then simmer for 1 minute or until slightly thickened.
8. Turn chicken to coat in sauce. If the sauce gets too thick, add a touch of water and stir.
9. Remove from stove immediately. Place chicken on plates and drizzle over remaining sauce
